ORDER

Government Order read as 1st paper above embodies the rules governing the Kerala Freedom Fighters' Pension Scheme. As per Rule 10 and 11 of Kerala Freedom Fighters' Pension Rules read as 5th paper above, widows/unmarried daughters/minor sons of deceased freedom fighters are eligible for Kerala Freedom Fighters' Continuous Pension subject to the conditions specified therein. Whereas widows who receive no pension other than Central Freedom Fighters Continuous Pension are eligible for Kerala Freedom Fighters' Continuous Pension irrespective of income, unmarried daughters/minor sons are eligible for the Kerala Freedom Fighters' Continuous Pension provided the income limit does not exceed ₹ 12,000 per annum till attaining the age of 18 in the case of minor sons and till marriage in the case of unmarried daughters.

Government are receiving a large number of applications from dependent widowed daughters/divorced daughters, physically/mentally disabled dependent sons/daughters of deceased freedom fighters etc. for Kerala Freedom Fighters' Continuous Pension.

Government have examined the matter in detail and decided to include dependent widowed daughters/divorced daughters, severely handicapped physically/mentally disabled dependent sons/daughters of deceased freedom fighters, in the list of persons eligible for Kerala Freedom Fighters' Continuous Pension by incorporating Rule 11 A to Kerala Freedom Fighters' Pension Rules, 1971 observing all the conditions stipulated in Rule 10 and 11.

AMENDMENT

In the said Rules, Rule 11 A is inserted just below to Rule 11, as follows:

Rule 11 A: Government shall have the power to sanction Kerala Freedom Fighters' Continuous Pension based on merit in most deserving cases to dependent widowed daughters/divorced daughters till their remarriage/death and to the physically/mentally disabled dependent sons/daughters who suffer severe physical or mental disability which is certified by a duly constituted Medical Board, subject to the stipulations in Rule 10 and 11.
